all it takes is one murder to change a million lives and that's exactly what happens to Kasheef Williams on a cold Black Friday after a reunion with an old friend goes wrong in a Long Island night club. Kasheef is forced to protect himself by any means necessary. The only problem is that prying eyes see everything; those eyes belong to Alija Bell. After walking in on a situation she was never meant to see, she runs, but Kasheef sees her face and he tells her that it's best for her to get temporary amnesia. Afraid for her life and the safety of her daughter, she keeps her mouth shut, but when a tape of the murder surfaces, the only face that's visible is Alija's. Now the police are looking for their eyewitness, and Kasheef has to get to Alija before her day comes to testify against him in court. In this dramatic hood-savvy tale, things aren't always as they seem; somebody holds the ticket to the jury's verdict, lies and truth collide, everyone has a different angle, but the only question is who has the most influence over Kasheef's fate.

Plunge into a thrilling adventure tracking domestic terrorists in book 7 of the acclaimed Maggie O'Dell series from New York Times bestselling author Alex Kava. On the busiest shopping day of the year, a group of idealistic college students believe they're about to carry out an elaborate media stunt at the largest mall in America. They think the equipment in their backpacks will disrupt stores' computer systems, causing delays and chaos, disrupting capitalism. If only for a moment, what they don't realize is that instead of jamming devices, their backpacks contain explosives, and they're about to become unwitting suicide bombers. FBI profiler Maggie O'Dell must put her own political troubles aside to work with Nick Morrelli and figure out who's behind this terrorist plot, a massacre that's all the more frightening when a tip reveals that Maggie's brother is one of the doomed protestors.
